

8,000 miles to wed : changes :

A 22-YEAR-OLD Iver girl left her home last week to travel 8,000 miles to say "I will."

She is June Bird, of 1 Linescottages, Iver, and she is now on the high seas in the luxury liner Asturias, well on her way to Colombo, Ceylon. There, on December 11, she will wed 21-year-old Cpl. Terence Patrick Bryant, who is serving in the R.A.F.

June, who was a factory hand at Mars Ltd., met Terence—who hails from Hayes—at a dance in Uxbridge. Some months after they met, the bridegroom-to-be was posted to Colombo, where he will serve for three years.

JUNE BIRD

Before he left he talked things over with June, and they decided that she should follow him to Colombo and get married there. June will stay in Colombo until Terence's service ends.

Her mother and twin-sister, Mrs. Duke, who lives at 8 Middle Green-road, Langley, saw her off on the boat train from Waterloo, and June—as you can guess—was very excited.

Who wouldn't be?